THE NEWGRANGE SCHOOL OF PRINCETON, INC. ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF TIM VIANDS AS NEW HEAD OF SCHOOLS/EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Press release; MAY 1, 2018

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY – After concluding a nationwide search, the Board of Trustees of Newgrange Inc. is delighted to announce the appointment of Mr. Tim Viands as Head of Schools and Executive Director. Tim succeeds Dr. Gordon F. Sherman, who has been named Executive Director Emeritus.

Starting May 1, under the Newgrange Inc. umbrella, Tim will lead Newgrange School, The Laurel School of Princeton, and the Ann Robinowitz Education Center—all three provide exceptional programming for students with learning differences.

Tim Viands earned his B.S. from Towson University and his M.A. from Wesleyan University. Most recently, he served as headmaster at Grand River Academy—an all-boys boarding school in Ohio for young men who have great potential, but learn differently. Tim has served on the board at the Ohio Association of Independent Schools and Big Brothers Big Sisters of NE Ohio. He also has led accreditation visits for the Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS).

Tim believes professional development is integral to a forward-thinking school. His dual driving force is his affinity for, as he says, “the underdog” and his passion for unlocking the extraordinary potential of students with learning differences. Already Tim is brimming with ideas and plans for building on Dr. Sherman’s pioneering work and for fostering an atmosphere of shared vision, planning, programming, and philosophy among the Newgrange and Laurel schools and the education center.

“We are absolutely thrilled to have Mr. Viands lead us into the future,” said Ann Robinowitz, Newgrange Inc. president and Board Chair.
